DABC Announces April 15th Crunch Day Last minute help at the end of the tax season

April 11, 2009 – The Denver Asset Building Coalition (DABC) announces extended hours for free income tax preparation services on Wednesday, April 15th with the annual “Crunch Day” event. April 15th is the last day to file a tax return for 2008 income without incurring late filing penalties.

“Our Crunch Day traditional event is a way to help last-minute taxpayers get their returns filed on time,” said Brian Cotter, DABC Board President. “There are always those procrastinators who appreciate the extra help at the end of the tax season, and we’re proud to offer that service from 10:00 am to 6:00 pm at our King Trimble Center SuperSite.”

DABC services are available to households earning less than $45,000 in 2008. Services available on Crunch Day are filing 2008 federal and Colorado tax returns, federal filing extension requests, and free US Bank checking accounts. Crunch Day is a partnership of DABC, the IRS Stakeholder Partnerships Education and Communication (SPEC) office, the City of Denver’s Office of Economic Development, US Bank, and Making Connections Denver.
